

Alabama's Back-to-School Sales Tax Holiday

BY THE NUMBERS

12:01

12:01 a.m. Friday, July 21: The time this year's tax holiday starts.

The tax-free weekend ends at midnight Sunday, July 23.

Shop early or late at stores with extended hours to beat the crowds.

New date. Same savings.

10% Many cities and counties will also waive their local tax, meaning a savings of up to 10 percent in those Alabama localities.

13 The number of states, including Alabama, with a back-to-school sales tax holiday.

$750 OR LESS Single purchases of computers, tablets, e-readers and computer equipment with this selling price are tax free.

12

The number of years Alabama has had a back-to-school sales tax holiday. The first sales tax holiday was in August 2006.

4% The amount of tax saved statewide on the qualified items

318 The number of cities and counties that plan to participate in the 2017 sales tax holiday. Cities and counties had until June 21 to notify the state they would add their savings to the sales tax holiday.

$50 OR LESS

Each of the qualified school supplies can cost this amount and still be tax free. Not every item on a school's supply list will be tax free. A "school supply" for this purpose is one of 27 specific items commonly used by a student in a course of study. Tissues and wipes, for instance, which are on almost all schools' supply lists, are NOT tax free. Find the all-inclusive list at
